

Thank you for consigning with 529 Hollin Hall! Before we can help you reduce-reuse-recycle your kids' clothing and gear, please read our consignment agreement closely, and then sign and transmit this Agreement back to us. If you have any questions about this Agreement, please email us at: sales@529HollinHall.com

A. Clean and fresh

We want to remain time efficient and meet with as many consignors as possible, and so we ask that you bring in a maximum of 50 items for consignment. The clothing you consign needs to be from a smoke-free and mothball-free environment. All consigned items need to be in good condition, laundered, dustless, spot-free and folded/packaged neatly and ready to go (button all buttons, snap all snaps) when given to us. We will carefully examine merchandise for tears and/or stains. We maintain high aesthetic and practical standards; therefore if an item does not meet our standards we reserve the right not to sell that item. If this is the case, we will notify you, and give you the option to take it back; or we will donate it for you. We are not experts in the safety of apparel or gear, and we do not repair items, so please do not provide us with anything if you have any reason to believe that it could be unsafe for our customers.

C. How it Works

1. Accounts

On the day of your appointment, make sure to arrive on time, as we have multiple appointments in one day! We will go through your items with you and decide what we feel is suitable to sell. We will set up an account in your name, with the information you provide for us below. Each item that you bring in that we decide to consign is given an item number. When we sell one of your items, your account receives a credit of 40% of the selling price. Read below (section C. 4) for how that credit later becomes cash to you. We will market and sell your items for a period of 3 months.

2. Pricing

We reserve the sole right to set the prices on the consigned articles. Generally, we look at comparable items, and based on condition we price accordingly. Markdowns/discounts may be taken at our discretion during the consignment period. A 25% markdown will be taken after 30 days and a 50% markdown will be taken after 60 days. We reserve the right to hold merchandise to be sure we are selling it during the right season.

3. When?

We accept baby and children clothing up to size 16 and shoes in the corresponding sizes. We NO LONGER TAKE maternity. We are also taking select women's clothing apparel. Consignment is accepted by appointment only, Monday-Friday at 10:30 am, 1:00 pm & 2:30 pm and Saturday at 10:30 am only.

We accept items BY SEASON. We accept gear all year round, it is always in season!

We will make every effort to get you in as soon as possible, however, please understand that we are sometimes booked 3-4 weeks out. If you have UNDER 20 ITEMS, please let us know and we can squeeze you in sooner.

4. Cashing Out

As noted above, Consignor receives 40% of the actual selling price for their consigned items. You are welcome to call, email, or come in to check your balance at anytime during your consignment period. We will mail you a check for items sold (balance must be greater than $10) at the end of the month in which your consignment period ends. Please make sure you notify us of any address/phone number/email changes as soon as possible. In lieu of a check you may also use the money in your account as "store credit." This credit can be used at anytime throughout the consignment period, as long as there is money in your account.

5. Consignment Period

Once items are consigned, a PDF with an itemized list, including prices and the date of consignment will be sent to you by e-mail. The consignment period ends THREE MONTHS from the date the items are accepted and it is every consignor's responsibility to keep track of this date. If you choose to have your your expired items returned to you, they must be picked up ON or BEFORE the last day of your consignment period. We will print your list of expired items and certainly help you find your items if the traffic in the store and our workload allows for it. Please pick up on WEEKDAYS ONLY. All expired items that are not claimed after the consignment period end date, become property of 529 Hollin Hall and will be sold or DONATED.

6. Liability

529 Hollin Hall does NOT assume responsibility nor do we reimburse consignor for loss or damage due to fire, theft, or for any other reason. All risk of ownership of consigned items shall stay with the consignor. 529 Hollin Hall does not make any warranties or representations about the safety or suitability of items consigned. 529 Hollin Hall has no experience or expertise in manufacturing, repairing, or inspecting merchandise for safety, ease of use, or fitness for a particular purpose and therefore disclaims any responsibility for recalls, defective merchandise, or safe usage for any purpose.

7. Updates and Changes

529 Hollin Hall reserves the right to alter this policy at any time. It is the consignor's responsibility to check the current agreement on our website for any updates (www.529HollinHall.com).

8. Other Legal Stuff

This Consignment Agreement is the full written and complete agreement between 529 Hollin Hall and the Consignor. Any amendments, additions, or modifications to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties in a fashion indicating that both parties know they are making a change to these terms (i.e. don't infer anything from an email signature). This agreement shall be governed by the law of the Commonwealth of Virginia, no matter where the Consignor resides.
